

The familiar sound of the 21 gun salute, in honor of those who have lost their lives defending our country, could be heard resounding across the valley last Sunday during Memorial Day celebrations held at the Dillsburg Cemetery.